

Delightful Dainty Treats For A Noble Luncheon

“Dim sum” brunch is the most popular and well-known form of Cantonese cuisine. Eating dim sum is usually a happy and lively occasion, when family and friends gather to sip tea and eat a great variety of dishes.

Fresh, bite-sized and satisfying - the dim sum at Noble House, Nexus Resort & Spa Karambunai certainly checked all the right boxes for a delightful lunch. Presently, Noble House is hosting an all-you-can-eat dim sum extravaganza, giving diners the opportunity to enjoy multiple servings of their favourite dainty treats. The Dim Sum promotion, served during lunch, features steamed, deep-fried and baked dim sum

“The promotion has been well-received by diners who come here for a relaxed lunch while catching up with colleagues, business associates or family,” said Irwan Goh, General Manager of Nexus Resort & Spa Karambunai. Due to its overwhelming popularity, this all-you-can-eat is being reintroduced this month.

Besides staples such as steamed fresh shrimp dumplings and siu mai (steamed chicken dumplings), the restaurant also offers some in-house creations. These include deep fried radish cake, deep fried bean curd prawn dumpling, phoenix feet dumpling to name a few.

The Dim Sum Delights promotion is priced at RM48 nett per person. It is served daily from 11.30am to 2.30pm. Reservations is definitely recommended.
